Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

SKU: 9780078028632-TEST-BANK

Comprehensive School Health Education, 9e (Meeks)
Chapter 2 School Health Services and Healthful School Environment: Promoting and Protecting Health and Safety

1) Teachers' role in helping students gain access to health services is based mainly on their
A) health training.
B) diagnostic skills.
C) daily exposure to students.
D) understanding of the health care system.

Answer: C
Page Ref: 28
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

2) The most common problem concerning school nurses is a lack of _____ in many schools.
A) availability
B) insurance
C) training
D) support

Answer: A
Page Ref: 28
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

3) Which of the following is the most appropriate task for a school health aide?
A) counsel parents and students about health concerns
B) conduct individual health appraisals
C) perform health screening
D) maintain health records

Answer: D
Page Ref: 29
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

4) The main reason for the development of school-based health centers has been
A) parent demand for reproductive services.
B) a lack of access to health care for many students.
C) the growth of government-sponsored health care.
D) the growth of physical education programming in the curriculum.

Answer: B
Page Ref: 31
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

5) A student has a dangerous allergic reaction when he eats anything containing peanuts. The most important precaution for the school to take in these types of cases is
A) a policy authorizing any school personnel to treat in an emergency.
B) a signed waiver from all parents authorizing emergency treatment.
C) individual emergency care plans for such students.
D) a designated first aid person.

Answer: C
Page Ref: 29
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

6) The main benefit of automatic administration devices for student medications is
A) tamper resistance.
B) protection from lawsuits.
C) ease of proper administration.
D) prohibiting others from administering drugs to a student.

Answer: C
Page Ref: 33
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

7) The most commonly dispensed medications in schools are for
A) asthma.
B) diabetes.
C) attention deficit hyperactivity disorder.
D) mental disorders.

Answer: C
Page Ref: 33
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

8) Which of the following play a part in creating optimal learning conditions?
A) School size.
B) Noise control.
C) Color choices.
D) All of the above.

Answer: D
Page Ref: 35
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

9) Of the following, the best way to build a positive emotional environment is to
A) flex rules freely.
B) keep students busy.
C) punish offenders promptly.
D) set high expectations for all students.

Answer: D
Page Ref: 37
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

10) Freedom from anxiety is the hallmark of
A) emotional security.
B) well-lit classrooms.
C) classroom discipline.
D) sensitivity to differences.

Answer: A
Page Ref: 38
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

11) The primary role of a school safety council is to
A) investigate accidents.
B) punish safety rule violations.
C) create safety policies and procedures.
D) act as an advocacy group for school safety.

Answer: C
Page Ref: 39
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

12) In safety liability cases, the most common charge against teachers is
A) negligence.
B) malfeasance.
C) ignorance of rules.
D) exceeding authority.

Answer: A
Page Ref: 39
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

13) All of the following are purposes of accident reports EXCEPT
A) correcting safety problems.
B) evaluating safety programs.
C) preventing liability lawsuits.
D) identifying students for safety education.

Answer: D
Page Ref: 40
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

14) The most important place for schools to implement transportation safety measures is in
A) streets and alleys near school.
B) pickup and drop off zones.
C) students' homes.
D) playgrounds.

Answer: B
Page Ref: 40
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

15) Injuries to elementary students most commonly occur
A) in bathrooms.
B) in classrooms.
C) on playgrounds.
D) in hallways and stairs.

Answer: C
Page Ref: 40
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

16) The USDA provides meals to students in _____ percent of the nation's schools.
A) 100
B) 20-30
C) 95
D) 60-70

Answer: C
Page Ref: 44
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

17) School nurses have narrowly focused responsibilities.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 28
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

18) The average U.S. school district has one school nurse for every 750 students.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 28
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

19) Families of HIV-positive students are not required to disclose the students' HIV status to their schools.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 31
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

20) So-called full-service schools form partnerships with community agencies to deliver health and social services as well as education.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 30
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

21) School-based health centers provide services to about six million children.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 31
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

22) School-based health centers focus more on treatment than on preventive services.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 31
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

23) The most commonly dispensed medications in schools are for attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD).

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 33
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

24) Schools should be built to minimize so-called hidden spaces.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 37
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

25) The optimum emotional environment for learning is one that is formal and businesslike.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 37
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

26) There should be no tolerance for ridicule and putdowns between students.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 38
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

27) One of the chief purposes of safety rules is to avoid civil liability for accidents.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 39
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

28) It is important for witnesses to an accident to sign the accident report.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 40
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

29) There should be separate emergency plans for the school district, the school building, and individual classrooms.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 41
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

30) Research shows that the physical condition of school property has no influence on student violence.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 41
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank

31) Environmental tobacco smoke is a known cause of health problems.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 43
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

32) The National School Lunch Program subsidizes lunch expenses for participating schools.

Answer: TRUE
Page Ref: 44
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

33) Not all 50 states have some form of mandatory child abuse and neglect reporting law.

Answer: FALSE
Page Ref: 42
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

34) Who are the providers of school health services, and what are their roles?

Answer: Answers will vary.
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

35) Describe security measures that need to be observed when controlled substances are stored and administered in schools.

Answer: Answers will vary.
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

36) List five ways a teacher could enhance the emotional environment of a classroom.

Answer: Answers will vary.
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

37) Define environmental tobacco smoke and describe some of the dangers associated with it.

Answer: Answers will vary.
Accessibility: Keyboard Navigation

Copyright 2020 © McGraw-Hill Education. All rights reserved. No reproduction or distribution without the prior written consent of McGraw-Hill Education.

Comprehensive School Health Education 9th edition Meeks Test Bank