Mosbys Pharmacy Technician 7th edition Davis Test Bank

SKU: 9780443124907-TEST-BANK

Test Bank - Chapter 01

Q: Which organization(s) saw the need for standardized education for pharmacy technicians?

A. American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP)
B. American Pharmacists Association (APhA)
C. Michigan Pharmacists Association (MPA)
D. All options are correct (Correct)

Q: Who is considered the “Father of Medicine”?

A. Plato
B. Hippocrates (Correct)
C. Asclepius
D. Socrates

Q: In which language were medicinal recipes (prescriptions) written until the 1900s?

A. French
B. Greek
C. Latin (Correct)
D. Italian

Q: Which of the following remedies are still being used today?

A. Maggots
B. Trephining
C. Leeches
D. Maggots and leeches (Correct)

Q: The effects associated with opioid receptors include all of the following except

A. analgesia.
B. respiratory depression.
C. increased gastrointestinal motility. (Correct)
D. euphoria.

Q: Which of the following choices best describes sources of materials for remedies in ancient times?

A. Chemicals, minerals, and vitamins
B. Minerals, animals, and plant parts (Correct)
C. Bodies of water, plant parts, and dirt
D. Prayer, bones, and plant parts

Q: Which medication(s) come(s) from plants?

A. Opium
B. Penicillin
C. Quinine
D. Opium and quinine (Correct)

Mosbys Pharmacy Technician 7th edition Davis Test Bank

Q: Which soft drink originally contained cocaine and caffeine?

A. Ginger Ale
B. Pepsi-Cola
C. Coca-Cola (Correct)
D. Hires Root Beer

Q: The first vaccine, developed in 1796, was for the prevention of which condition?

A. Mumps
B. Smallpox (Correct)
C. Measles
D. Poliomyelitis (polio)

Q: Laudanum, which is a combination of opium and alcohol that was used during the Civil War for multiple conditions, was problematic for what reason?

A. Laudanum was difficult to make.
B. It was very expensive.
C. Opium could no longer be imported.
D. Laudanum was highly addictive and resulted in many deaths and miscarriages. (Correct)

Q: Many soldiers died from which condition during the Civil War?

A. Common diseases
B. Battle wounds
C. Postsurgical infections
D. All options are correct (Correct)

Q: Who discovered penicillin?

A. Alexander Fleming (Correct)
B. Louis Pasteur
C. Gerhard Domagk
D. James Watson

Q: Which of the following scientists made major contributions to the field of genetics?

A. Watson and Crick
B. Gregor Mendel
C. Louis Pasteur
D. Watson and Crick and Gregor Mendel (Correct)

Q: What is the name of the first pharmacy school in the United States, which opened in 1821?

A. College of Pharmacy and Sciences in Philadelphia (Correct)
B. College of Pharmacy in Albany
C. Ohio State College of Pharmacy in Columbus
D. Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in Boston

Q: The first pharmacy technicians

A. worked in hospitals.

B. worked in drug stores.
C. were enlisted military personnel. (Correct)
D. were pharmacists' wives.

Q: What are the benefits of pharmacy technician certification?

A. Increased standard of education
B. Increased salary
C. Increased trust by pharmacists
D. All options are correct (Correct)

Q: What criteria must an individual possess to become a pharmacist?

A. Pass the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy (NABP) examination and an examination covering the individual pharmacist's state pharmacy law
B. Earn a PharmD degree
C. Take the PTCB examination
D. Pass the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy (NABP) examination and an examination covering the individual pharmacist's state pharmacy law and earn a PharmD degree (Correct)

Q: Why are the roles of pharmacy technicians expanding to include duties that used to be limited only to pharmacists?

A. Pharmacists are moving into more clinical roles by counseling patients and working with medical staff. (Correct)
B. There is a shortage of pharmacists in the workforce.
C. Technicians are better trained in computer order entry.
D. Technicians are replacing pharmacists in the workplace.

Q: Who was known as a proponent of diet, exercise, rest, and lifestyle changes to improve health?

A. Hippocrates (Correct)
B. Bacon
C. Asclepius
D. Salk

Q: Which early physician and alchemist realized the benefit of treating a disorder with one medication at a time to determine the effectiveness and dose of each medication, rather than the customary multiple dosing?

A. Aristotle
B. Paracelsus (Correct)
C. Galen
D. Bacon

Q: Which ancient treatment process consisted of cutting a hole in the skull to allow evil spirits that were thought to cause disease a way to exit the body?

A. Bloodletting
B. Trephining (Correct)
C. Leaching
D. Venesection

Q: Who prepared remedies to cure the new immigrant patients in North America during the early 1700s?

A. Apothecary
B. Medicine man
C. Physician (Correct)
D. Pharmacist

Q: In early American history, many people died of mercury poisoning, since mercury was used to treat

A. diphtheria.
B. dysentery.
C. malaria.
D. syphilis. (Correct)

Q: The first pharmacy operated by a registered pharmacist opened in which city in 1823?

A. New Orleans (Correct)
B. New York
C. Washington
D. Philadelphia

Q: When was the Pharmacy Technician Certification Board (PTCB) formed?

A. 1955
B. 1975
C. 1990
D. 1995 (Correct)

Q: Who is known as the “father of genetics”?

A. Alexander Fleming
B. Claudius Galen
C. Gregor Mendel (Correct)
D. Gerhard Domagk

Q: Federal patient consultation laws mandated by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 (OBRA 90) are directed at

A. all insured patients.
B. all patients.
C. Medicaid patients. (Correct)
D. Medicare patients.

Q: Apothecary can mean a(n)

A. pharmacist.
B. pharmacy technician.
C. drug store.
D. pharmacist and drug store. (Correct)

Q: What is the purpose of using maggots in medicine?

A. To reduce blood volume
B. To clean wounds by removing dead tissue (Correct)
C. No longer have any purpose to the practice of medicine
D. To reduce pain and swelling

Q: What was the first synthetic antibiotic discovered?

A. Penicillin
B. Sulfonamide (Correct)
C. Tetracycline
D. Cephalosporin

Q: Which organization offers specialized training in sterile products and hazardous drug compounding?

A. Critical Point (Correct)
B. National Association of Chain Drug Stores
C. PCAT
D. PTEC

Q: What test must potential pharmacy students obtain a passing grade before being admitted to a school of pharmacy?

A. MCAT
B. PCAT (Correct)
C. PTCE
D. PTEC

Q: Which website may a pharmacy technician access to obtain information on their state laws regarding pharmacy technicians?

A. www.nabp.net (Correct)
B. www.nabp.org
C. www.ptcb.org
D. www.ptec.org

Q: Which of the following topics must an entry level technician have a basic understanding?

A. Anticoagulation services
B. Medication reconciliation
C. Pharmacokinetic services
D. Pharmacology (Correct)

Q: Who established the germ theory of disease?

A. Edward Mellanby
B. Felix Hoffman
C. Louis Pasteur (Correct)
D. Selman A. Waksman

Q: What is the formal symbol of medicine?

A. Caduceus
B. Hermes' sandals
C. Rx symbol
D. Staff of Asclepius (Correct)

Q: Which term refers to both synthetic and semisynthetic medications of opium?

A. Hypnotic
B. Narcotic
C. Opiate
D. Opioid (Correct)

Q: A red show globe indicated

A. a town had a pharmacy.
B. a town did not have a pharmacy.
C. a town was healthy.
D. a town had illness or was under a quarantine. (Correct)

Q: In 2012, the FDA approved _____ wound dressings to treat over-the-counter abrasions, lacerations, and minor cuts.

A. chamomile tea
B. manuka honey (Correct)
C. peppermint oil
D. red onion

Q: Which substance did the first 7-Up drink contain?

A. Caffeine
B. Cocaine
C. Lithium (Correct)
D. Opium

Review Questions - Chapter 01

Q: During the Civil War, many soldiers died as a result of

A. unsanitary conditions.
B. postsurgical infections.
C. gunshot wounds.
D. All options are correct. (Correct)

Q: Which of the following choices best describes sources of materials for remedies in ancient times?

A. Chemicals, minerals, and vitamins
B. Minerals, animals, and prayer
C. Minerals, animals, and plant parts (Correct)
D. Plant parts, seeds, and minerals

Q: Which of the following statements is not true?

A. Sulfonamides are synthetic antibiotics
B. Sulfonamides are used for urinary tract infections
C. Gerhard Domagk discovered sulfonamide.
D. Sulfonamide was one of many new antibiotic classes discovered in the 1800s. (Correct)

Q: Entering new prescriptions into the computer are tasks a _____ can do.

A. Pharmacist
B. Pharmacy technician (Correct)
C. Pharmacy clerk
D. All options are correct

Q: The PTCB was founded by which of the following entities?

A. ASHP, MPA, CPhA, PTEC
B. MPA, ICHP, APhA, ASHP (Correct)
C. NAPB, ASHP, MPA, ICHP
D. APhA, ASHP, NABP, PTEC

Q: Opium and alcohol were once used to

A. desensitize a person from pain.
B. treat diabetes.
C. treat morning sickness.
D. All options are correct. (Correct)

Q: Apothecary means

A. pharmacist.
B. store.
C. drug.
D. pharmacist and store. (Correct)

Q: The first pharmacy technicians were

A. family members.
B. clerks.
C. military technicians.
D. All options are correct. (Correct)

Q: Pharmacy technicians perform the following functions except:

A. Filling prescriptions.
B. Compounding medications.
C. Counseling patients. (Correct)
D. Ordering medications.

Q: The PTCB is an organization that

A. regulates all pharmacy technicians.
B. gives a national examination for pharmacy technicians.
C. was founded by several pharmacist associations.
D. gives a national examination for pharmacy technicians and was founded by several pharmacist associations. (Correct)