Short Answer

1. In 2016, 23% of persons age 65 and over were members of racial or ethnic minority populations—9% were African Americans (not Hispanic), 4% were Asian or Pacific Islander (not Hispanic), 0.5% were Native American (not Hispanic), 0.1% were Native Hawaiian/Pacific Islander (not Hispanic), and 0.7% of persons 65+ identified themselves as being of two or more races. Persons of Hispanic origin (who may be of any race) represented 8% of the older population. Discuss briefly, how the aging networks might address this change in demographics at the local level.

2. According to the Census Bureau (U.S. Census Bureau, 2017), "by 2035, there will be 78 million people 65 years and older compared to 76.4 million under the age of 1." This will be the first time in history that older adults will outnumber children in the United States. This demographic significantly impacts our society on a variety of levels. Address the ways in which this impact will shape our communities and our programs and services.

3. Describe what the increase in older adults might mean for you personally.

4. How will your own life style and life span offer you additional opportunities that were unavailable to your grandparents and great-grandparents?

5. Discuss why you might want to work with the older population or on behalf of this population after completing your studies.
