Pratt's Long Term Care 5th edition Chies Test Bank

SKU: 9781284184334-TEST-BANK

Long-Term Care: Managing Across the Continuum, Fifth Edition
Steven E. Chies
Chapter 1 Quiz

Multiple Choice

1. The current system of long-term care providers has developed largely in response to:
A) need.
B) demand.
C) availability of reimbursement.
D) All of these are correct.
Ans: D
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: The Consumers of Long-Term Care
Subject: Chapter 1

2. Which of the following are not "informal caregivers?"
A) Family and friends
B) Religious organizations
C) Community groups
D) Government agencies
Ans: D
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Strengths and Weaknesses in the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

3. Baby boomers is a term used to describe people born:
A) since 1990.
B) between 1946 and 1964.
C) before 1956.
D) between 1964 and 1999.
Ans: B
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: The Consumers of Long-Term Care
Subject: Chapter 1

4. "Multilevel facilities" refers to facilities that:
A) provide multiple levels of care.
B) are built on more than one floor.
C) accept multiple levels of reimbursement for each type of care.
D) All of these are correct.
Ans: A
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Strengths and Weaknesses in the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

5. Which of the following is not a weakness of the long-term care system?
A) It is fragmented and uncoordinated.

Copyright © 2021 by Jones & Bartlett Learning, LLC, an Ascend Learning Company

Pratt's Long Term Care 5th edition Chies Test Bank

B) Services are distributed inequitably.
C) There has been no innovation by providers.
D) There are multiple entry points into the system.
Ans: C
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Strengths and Weaknesses in the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

True/False

1. The terms chronic care and long-term care are generally used interchangeably.
Ans: True
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Defining the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

2. Long-term care consumers are usually defined by a single disease or condition.
Ans: False
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: The Consumers of Long-Term Care
Subject: Chapter 1

3. Long-term care is defined as care provided in nursing homes.
Ans: False
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Defining the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

4. Although we usually think of long-term care as being for the elderly, nearly half of the people using long-term care are non-elderly.
Ans: True
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Defining the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

5. Aging in place is a form of single-site care availability.
Ans: True
Complexity: Easy
Ahead: Strengths and Weaknesses in the Long-Term Care System
Subject: Chapter 1

Copyright © 2021 by Jones & Bartlett Learning, LLC, an Ascend Learning Company

Pratt's Long Term Care 5th edition Chies Test Bank