Dossey & Keegan's Holistic Nursing 9th edition Shields Test Bank

SKU: 9781284311655-TEST-BANK

Multiple Choice

1. According to the WHO Constitution, health is defined as:
A) a state of partial physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
B) a state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
C) a state of complete physical, existential, and sexual well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
D) a state of complete cultural, spiritual, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.

Ans: B
Complexity: Difficult
H1-head: The Global Health Mirrors Holistic Health
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

2. Global citizenship is best defined as:
A) traveling from one's country of origin and not making a shift in consciousness to see nursing as globally inclusive.
B) speaking multiple languages fluently and promoting trade and international business.
C) holding a worldview of inclusiveness with all humanity and identifying as belonging to a world community.
D) holding an open and inclusive worldview and working for an international organization.

Ans: C
Complexity: Difficult
H1-head: The Global Health Mirrors Holistic Health
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

3. A global citizen nurse is characterized by:
A) someone who must travel internationally for their nursing practice.
B) a nurse engaged with people beyond borders through a shift in consciousness to see nursing as globally inclusive.
C) a nurse who is competent in and works exclusively in low- and middle-income countries.

Dossey & Keegan's Holistic Nursing 9th edition Shields Test Bank

D) a nurse with advanced degrees in international studies working across continents for a global presence.

Ans: B
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: The Global Health Mirrors Holistic Health
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

4. The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) were created to replace which previous UN initiative that was active between 2000 and 2015?
A) Millennium Development Goals (MDGs)
B) Global Health Initiative (GHI)
C) Nightingale Initiative for Global Health (NIGH)
D) International Health Goals (IHG)

Ans: A
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

5. The five themes of the United Nations 2030 Agenda are:
A) People, Planet, Peace, Prosperity, Partnership.
B) Health, Education, Environment, Economy, Equality.
C) Prevention, Protection, Promotion, Partnership, Progress.
D) Community, Culture, Climate, Commerce, Communication.

Ans: A
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

6. The ANA and AHNA's Holistic Nursing: Scope and Standards of Practice core values provides an important framework for:
A) international nursing licensure requirements.

B) holistic nurses' mission.
C) global health policy development.
D) nursing research methodologies.

Ans: B
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

7. According to the World Health Organization, approximately how many nurses comprise the global workforce?
A) 15 million
B) 22 million
C) 29 million
D) 35 million

Ans: C
Complexity: Easy
H1-head: Globalization and Nurses as Global Citizens
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

8. The WHO's designation of the "Year of the Nurse and Midwife" was significant because it:
A) established new international nursing standards for holistic care.
B) created mandatory nursing education requirements all over the world.
C) recognized nursing's impact and influence on global health policy and practice.
D) launched a new international nursing certification program.

Ans: C
Complexity: Difficult
H1-head: Globalization and Nurses as Global Citizens
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Analyzing

9. GAPFON stands for:
A) Global Association of Professional Organizations in Future Nursing and Midwifery.

B) Global Advisory Panel on the Future of Nursing and Midwifery.
C) Global Alliance for Patient-Focused Outcomes in Nursing and Midwifery.
D) Global Academy for Progressive and Future-Oriented Nursing and Midwifery.

Ans: B
Complexity: Easy
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

10. Planetary citizenship is best described as:
A) a structured educational approach for advancing environmental awareness in health care.
B) a way to invite healing into the fractured aspects of the human-animal-earth experience.
C) a structured approach to promote healing in the field of holistic care and Chinese medicine.
D) a coordinated initiative focused on establishing systems for unified global leadership.

Ans: B
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

Import Settings:
Base Settings: Brownstone Default
Information Field: Complexity
Information Field: H1-head
Information Field: Subject
Information Field: Title
Information Field: Taxonomy
Highest Ans Letter: D
Multiple Keywords in Same Paragraph: No
NAS ISBN13: 9781284311655, add to Ahead, Title tags

Chapter: Chapter 01 - Quiz

Multiple Choice

1) According to the WHO Constitution, health is defined as:
A) a state of partial physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
B) a state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
C) a state of complete physical, existential, and sexual well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
D) a state of complete cultural, spiritual, and social well-being and not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.
Ans: B
Complexity: Difficult
H1-head: The Global Health Mirrors Holistic Health
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

2) Global citizenship is best defined as:
A) traveling from one's country of origin and not making a shift in consciousness to see nursing as globally inclusive.
B) speaking multiple languages fluently and promoting trade and international business.
C) holding a worldview of inclusiveness with all humanity and identifying as belonging to a world community.
D) holding an open and inclusive worldview and working for an international organization.
Ans: C
Complexity: Difficult
H1-head: The Global Health Mirrors Holistic Health
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

3) A global citizen nurse is characterized by:

A) someone who must travel internationally for their nursing practice.
B) a nurse engaged with people beyond borders through a shift in consciousness to see nursing as globally inclusive.
C) a nurse who is competent in and works exclusively in low- and middle-income countries.
D) a nurse with advanced degrees in international studies working across continents for a global presence.
Ans: B
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: The Global Health Mirrors Holistic Health
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

4) The Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) were created to replace which previous UN initiative that was active between 2000 and 2015?
A) Millennium Development Goals (MDGs)
B) Global Health Initiative (GHI)
C) Nightingale Initiative for Global Health (NIGH)
D) International Health Goals (IHG)
Ans: A
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

5) The five themes of the United Nations 2030 Agenda are:
A) People, Planet, Peace, Prosperity, Partnership.
B) Health, Education, Environment, Economy, Equality.
C) Prevention, Protection, Promotion, Partnership, Progress.
D) Community, Culture, Climate, Commerce, Communication.
Ans: A
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Understanding

6) The ANA and AHNA's Holistic Nursing: Scope and Standards of Practice core values provides an important framework for:
A) international nursing licensure requirements.
B) holistic nurses' mission.
C) global health policy development.
D) nursing research methodologies.
Ans: B
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

7) According to the World Health Organization, approximately how many nurses comprise the global workforce?
A) 15 million
B) 22 million
C) 29 million
D) 35 million
Ans: C
Complexity: Easy
H1-head: Globalization and Nurses as Global Citizens
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

8) The WHO's designation of the "Year of the Nurse and Midwife" was significant because it:
A) established new international nursing standards for holistic care.
B) created mandatory nursing education requirements all over the world.
C) recognized nursing's impact and influence on global health policy and practice.
D) launched a new international nursing certification program.
Ans: C
Complexity: Difficult
H1-head: Globalization and Nurses as Global Citizens
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Analyzing

9) GAPFON stands for:
A) Global Association of Professional Organizations in Future Nursing and Midwifery.
B) Global Advisory Panel on the Future of Nursing and Midwifery.
C) Global Alliance for Patient-Focused Outcomes in Nursing and Midwifery.
D) Global Academy for Progressive and Future-Oriented Nursing and Midwifery.
Ans: B
Complexity: Easy
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing
Taxonomy: Remembering

10) Planetary citizenship is best described as:
A) a structured educational approach for advancing environmental awareness in health care.
B) a way to invite healing into the fractured aspects of the human-animal-earth experience.
C) a structured approach to promote healing in the field of holistic care and Chinese medicine.
D) a coordinated initiative focused on establishing systems for unified global leadership.
Ans: B
Complexity: Moderate
H1-head: Determinants of Health and Calls for Sustainable Development
Subject: Chapter 1
Title: Global Holistic Nursing

Taxonomy: Remembering