Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd edition Andrew Test Bank

SKU: 9781492574910-TEST-BANK

1. According to the American Psychological Association (APA), which of the following is NOT one of the five ethical principles?

a. fidelity and responsibility

b. integrity

*c. confidentiality

d. justice

2. _____ is the legal principle, which requires researchers to have participants' consent.

*a. informed consent

b. contract

c. institutional review board

d. plagiarism

3. Prior to conducting a research project, researchers should ensure that their study conforms to common ethical standards.

*a. True
b. False

4. One of the main issues in research ethics is to only protect human subjects.

a. True
*b. False

5. An institutional review board (IRB) oversees all research that involves human subjects.

*a. True
b. False

6. Researchers can obtain approval from an IRB for their research plans after collecting data.

a. True
*b. False

7. Researchers do not need to report the results that fail to support the hypothesis.

a. True
*b. False

Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd edition Andrew Test Bank

8. Publishing the same manuscript in two journals is considered academic dishonesty.

*a. True
b. False

9. The notion of non-maleficence indicates that any risks associated with research participants have to be minimized as much as possible.

*a. True
b. False

10. Researchers can use study participants for their exclusive benefits.

a. True
*b. False

11. Fabricating or falsifying data can result in forfeiting the data and severe penalties.

*a. True
b. False

12. If necessary, researchers can exercise power to seek consent for research participation from individuals.

a. True
*b. False

13. Researchers should not describe any benefits (e.g., money, vouchers) in participating in a study in informed consent.

a. True
*b. False

14. Researchers can use the sentences or paragraphs from their own published article in other manuscripts without citing the work.

a. True
*b. False

15. _____ refers to using ideas, writings, or drawings of others without any citations.

Correct Answer(s):
a. Plagiarism

Research Methods and Design in Sport Management 2nd edition Andrew Test Bank