Essentials of Nursing Practice 2nd edition Delves-Yates Test Bank

SKU: 9781526424051-TEST-BANK

Lecturers' Test Bank
Chapter 1: What is nursing?

Multiple Choice

1. The notable figures in nursing history are _____.
a. Nightingale and Seacole
b. Cadwaladr and Richards
c. West and Wood
d. all of these
Ans: D

2. To practise legally as a nurse in the UK you must _____.
a. be over 25 years of age
b. hold a valid and current registration with the NMC
c. have experience in caring for patients from each of the four fields of nursing
d. all of these
Ans: B

3. The 6 Cs of nursing are _____.
a. care, compassion, competence, communication, courage, commitment
b. care, compassion, cleverness, courage, communication, commitment
c. care, compassion, competence, cleanliness, courage, commitment
d. Care, compassion, competence, clemency, commendableness, commitment Ans: A

4. The term profession is accurately used to describe _____.
a. an activity that is undertaken to earn a living
b. a job which brings celebrity status and great fortune
c. an occupation requiring extensive education with a code of ethics
d. any job which requires specific training
Ans: C

5. The essence of nursing is _____.
a. delivering effective care to adults, children, families and/or whole communities
b. working in partnership with individual people, groups of people or the families and carers of those people
c. helping individuals to achieve or maintain the best health, independence and quality of life possible
d. all of these
Ans: D

6. The NMC standards apply _____.
a. when you are caring for patients

Essentials of Nursing Practice 2nd edition Delves-Yates Test Bank

b. when you are caring for patients and in class
c. at all times
d. when you are working with your mentor
Ans: C

Essentials of Nursing Practice 2nd edition Delves-Yates Test Bank

Chapter 2: Being a nursing student

Multiple Choice

1. During your course you will learn _____.
a. only about your chosen field of nursing
b. field-specific and generic knowledge and skills
c. about your chosen field and one other field
d. About the importance of caring for children
Ans: B

2. The recurrent issues relating to the poor care of patients with learning disabilities include _____.
a. signs and symptoms of illness attributed to learning disabilities rather than physical illness
b. poor communication with people with learning disabilities
c. treatment options influenced by negative views about the quality of life of individuals with learning disabilities
d. all of these
Ans: D

3. When you see the term 'learning disabilities' you _____.:
a. can assume the individual will need help with washing and dressing
b. should not make assumptions
c. should assume that the individual will not be able to understand information about their healthcare
d. will know that the individual requires a high level of support to meet their needs
Ans: B

4. During your nursing course it is important that you _____.
a. concentrate on what you are being taught
b. turn your mobile phone off as soon as you enter class
c. respect those who are teaching you
d. all of these
Ans: D

5. The three senses we use to process information are _____.
a. visual, auditory and kinaesthetic
b. visual, smell and kinaesthetic
c. visual, auditory and taste
d. visual, smell and taste
Ans: A

6. Patients should be informed that the information they share with you _____.

Essentials of Nursing Practice 2nd edition Delves-Yates Test Bank

a. is confidential
b. may be shared with other members of the healthcare team if it is important in their care
c. may be disclosed to others if there is risk of harm occurring
d. all of these
Ans: D